

Greensboro Children's Theatre

2009-2010 Season

When was the last time that you went to a real live play? Since the 1950s, the Greensboro Children's Theatre has been providing fine family plays for children! Each year, the Greensboro Children's Theatre produces three plays, during the school year. Auditions are open to boys and girls in grades 4-9. Students may audition for on-stage roles, or sign up to work behind the scenes. No experience is needed! This year, the Greensboro Children's Theatre has three wonderful plays for you and your family to enjoy. Check it out...

Winnie, the Pooh – a musical

October 16-18, 2009

Odell Auditorium, Greensboro College, 815 W. Market St.

Auditions: August 29, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Robin Hood

March 12-14, 2010

Odell Auditorium, Greensboro College, 815 W. Market St.

Auditions: January 9, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Cinderella's Glass Slipper – a musical

June 11-13, 2010

Weaver Academy Theatre, 300 S. Spring St.

Auditions: April 17, 1:00 - 4:00 pm

TELL MOM & DAD!

Performances are held on Fridays at 7:30 pm, Saturdays at 2 pm and 4:30 pm and Sundays at 2 pm. Season tickets for all three plays are only $15.00, per person, or $7.00 for individual tickets. To purchase tickets, call (336) 272-0160 or contact the City Arts Drama Center's Youth Theatre office at (336) 373-2728.

For more information on the City Arts Drama Center program, check out our Up Close article.