The mission of the Department of Housing and Community Development is to ensure that all areas of Greensboro -- residential, business and center city -- remain healthy and vital. In this mission, the Department works closely with other housing and human service agencies, community and neighborhood groups, residents, and government leaders.

The City of Greensboro works in partnership with the community to build an increased quality of life for all residents by fostering an environment where inclusion, diversity, and trust are valued. As the seventh largest employer in Greensboro, the City has a dedicated professional staff of 2700 employees who maintain four core values of honesty, integrity, stewardship, and respect. The City of Greensboro is governed by a council-manager form of government where a mayor and eight council members act as the legislative body.
