

Winston-Salem Court Convicts 22 Of Trespass

WINSTON-SALEM, March 2 (AP) —Twenty-two persons, 10 of them white students at Wake Forest College, were convicted in Municipal Court here today on trespass charges that grew out of a lunch counter demonstration in a downtown store Feb. 23.

The others convicted were nine Negro students at Winston-Salem Teachers College and three additional Negroes.

Counsel for the 12 Negroes appealed to Superior Court. Counsel for the white students did not immediately file notice of appeal.

Judge Leroy Sams suspended judgment (imposed no penalty) after finding them guilty.

Counsel for the F. W. Woolworth Co., where the violations occurred, sought to drop the charges but the state would not agree.
