

STUDENTS MARCH IN CONCORD

CONCORD, March 8 (P)—A hundred Negro students marched quietly from Barber-Scotia College into the downtown section today in another protest against segregated lunch counters.

The noon-hour marchers carried signs saying, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do," through Belk's Department Store, focus of previous protests. Police reported no incidents.