

"As God Decreed"

Editor of the Daily News:

Many Public Pulse letters have used quotations from the Bible and other sources regarding segregation. One in particular that impresses me is, "All men are created equal." It is true that there is no respect of persons with God, but in every nation, he that feareth him and worketh righteousness is accepted with him" (Act. 10:34).

All persons (not even white) are born equal socially. Some are born rich, while others have quite a struggle to obtain a respectable living. Yet if we follow Christ we can be as happy and contented, and many times more so, than the rich with all of their responsibilities.

We read in Genesis, the first book of the Bible, that God created man in his own image before the fall. Then man became so wicked it was necessary that he destroy the human race by water. Noah built an Ark to the saving of his house. After the flood, we find that God made three separate races from the three Sons of Noah, Ham or Canaan, Shem and Japheth.

If you read on in your Bible you will see who the descendants of Ham or Canaan, Shem and Japheth are.

It would do well for the Negro and white to remember the words of Psalms, 75th chapter, verses 6 and 7.

I feel sure God did not intend for the races to mix socially or by marriage. Yet I feel all races should be given a chance in all vocations of life alike, but it will be impossible to mix socially and keep our race distinction as God has so decreed.
