

Protest Leaders Plan Meeting

DURHAM, March 20 (AP) — The Rev. Douglas E. Moore of Durham said tonight a southwide meeting of leaders in lunch counter protests is being planned for Raleigh.

Moore said the meeting has been scheduled for April 15-17, but did not disclose the site.

—Dean of the conference, which will draw the leaders in all of the cities where protests have been staged, will be the Rev. James Lawson Jr. of Nashville, Tenn.

Lawson will probably deliver the keynote address at the conference, Moore said.

Moore said other details will be announced later.
