

Man Freed On Charge Of Assault

WINSTON-SALEM, May 19 (AP)—Municipal Court Judge Leroy W. Sams dismissed an assault charge today against Bill Oren Speer, 24, assistant manager of the F. W. Woolworth Co. at Fourth and Liberty streets.

Asha Ralason, a Winston-Salem Teachers College student from New York, had contended that Speer pushed her as he tried to close the door of Woolworth's last Tuesday during Negro demonstrations against segregation.
