

Student Trials Slated Today

The trial of 45 college students on charges of trespassing at the S. H. Kress and Co. lunch counter last month is scheduled at 9:30 a.m. today in Municipal-County Court.

Cases were set earlier this month, but warrants were re-drawn and served, because they failed to list the proper title of the store. Judge Hampton Howerton Jr. will preside, and William A. Vaden will be the solicitor.
