

Trespass Case Set For Special Term

A special criminal term of Guilford Superior Court has been set for Greensboro the week of Aug. 8, Solicitor Horace Kornegay said today.

The trespass cases against 43 Negro students and two white students of A&T and Bennett Colleges are to be set for trial during the week. Kornegay said he has not been notified which judge will conduct the one-week term.

The Guilford Grand Jury Monday returned true bills of indictment against the 45 students who were arrested following sit-in demonstrations at S. H. Kress & Co.'s downtown store April 20. In Municipal County Court earlier, all defendants requested jury trials in Superior Court.
