

Adam Fischer

Director, Transportation

BS in Civil Engineering, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, 1987

Contact Info:

One Governmental Plaza, PO Box 3136, Greensboro, NC 27402-3136

Phone: 336-373-2489

E-mail: adam.fischer@greensboro-nc.gov

Career Highlights

City of Greensboro

- Director, Department of Transportation, 2009 to present
- Interim Director, Department of Transportation, 2008-2009
- Transportation Engineering Manager, Department of Transportation, 1998-2008
- Operations/Congestion Management Engineer, Department of Transportation, 1989-1999
- Project Engineer, Engineering Department, 1987-1989

United Cities Gas Company

- CO-OP Engineer, 1984-1986

Significant Accomplishments

- Managed the successful 2008 Transportation Bond campaign
- Managed several high-profile transportation projects from the 2000 Transportation Bond including improvements along Friendly Avenue, South Elm-Eugene Street, East Market Street streetscape, Greene Street streetscape and roundabout, and the Lake Jeanette Road improvements and roundabout.
- Downtown parking and traffic enhancements - Converted several one-way streets to two-way operation, added over 200 on-street parking spaces, and developed commercial loading zones to support downtown revitalization efforts.
- Developed a new Traffic Management Center (TMC) for the city that includes a new traffic signal system and surveillance cameras that are used to monitor traffic conditions, control traffic and inform motorists about real-life traffic conditions.
- Built new GTA Maintenance and Operations facility.

Certifications

- Registered Professional Engineer

Professional Organizations and Memberships

- Vice Chair of the Freight Mobility Council of the International Institute of Transportation Engineers (ITE)
- Serve on the ITE Ethics Committee
- Member of the International and North Carolina chapters of ITE
- Member of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE)
- Leadership Greensboro Graduate, 2007
- Chi Epsilon, National Civil Engineering Honor Society, Inducted 1985