Public Comment Guidelines

- All speakers will be allotted a set amount of time provided by the Commission Chair, generally a total of 20 minutes for all speakers after completing the agenda.
- Speakers are welcome to address the Commission regarding topics of interest relative to the mission and scope of the Greensboro Criminal Justice Advisory Commission.
- Speakers should address the Commission and clearly state their name before commenting.
- Comments should not be addressed to individual Commission members, City staff, or members of the public.
- Public comment is not a time for Commissioners to debate issues. Commission members may ask clarifying questions, but public comment shouldn't be for questions and answers. Matters raised during public comment may be referred to City staff for review.
