

“What to Do in Case” Series

Greensboro Police Department

Your child is missing:

- Call the police immediately. Give a good description of your child (clothing description, their name, date of birth, height and age).
- Call friends, family and neighbors to see if they’ve seen your child.
- Check all possible hiding places inside your residence.
- Never give up searching for your child.

