

Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department
Reenactment of the Battle of Guilford Courthouse
General Rules and Guidelines for Participants

The Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department's mission at this historic program is to teach visitors about everyday life in backcountry colonial North Carolina. This reenactment is intended to be an educational and entertaining event for all ages. The goal of the event is to show accurate demonstrations of military tactics, camp life and wares of the colonial period. To this end, all participants must follow these guidelines:

1. All participants are extended an invitation on a year-to-year basis. The reenactment host reserves the right to extend or deny future invitations on the basis of the following criteria:
  - Authenticity of participant's wares and/or demonstrations
  - Interaction with visitors and other participants
  - Unforeseen site restrictions (i.e. camping area size)
  - Numbers of participants
  - Violation of site privileges, rules or guidelines
2. There are three separate categories of participants. Each category has a limited number of invitations. The categories are as follows:
  - Military
  - Sutler (non-military)
  - Craftsmen/Demonstrator (non-military)
3. Military Units must follow the Greensboro Parks and Recreation Rules and Regulations as well as the Safety Regulations for Historical Reenactments and Programs. Violation of any safety regulation will result in disciplinary action. All units are provided with a copy of this document. If your unit does not have a copy, please inform the reenactment registrar.
4. All participants are required to abide by the policies of the City of Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department.
5. Interested military units, sutlers, and craftsmen who have not previously participated in the event must write a letter of introduction/request for information for the event.
  - Contact:
Country Park
Attention: Reenactment Registrar
3902 Nathanael Greene Drive
Greensboro, NC 27455
6. Former participants who have not been extended an invitation for a subsequent event must also request future invitations in writing.

Guidelines for Sutlers and Craftsmen:

Please note the new option for sutler fees.

1. All participants registering as sutlers are required to submit either A or B.
  - A. Submit a $25 fee along with their registration. In addition, upon completion of the event a 10% fee will be charged on the total amount of sales excluding the first $500. The additional amount owed to the host must be reported prior to leaving the host site and must be paid within two weeks of the event
  - B. Submit a $100 fee for the event without any additional fees due.
2. All participants registered as craftsmen are required to submit a $15 fee along with their registration. In addition, upon completion of the event a 10% fee will be charged on the total amount of sales excluding the first $500. The additional amount owed to the host must be reported prior to leaving the host site and must be paid within two weeks of the event.
3. Only the Host Representative will have the authority to waive or adjust any fees.
4. Only participants registered as Sutlers and Craftsmen may sell period items. We encourage anyone selling period items to also provide an appropriate demonstration, activity, etc.
5. Participants registered as craftsmen must demonstrate a craft or skill relative to the period, using tools, methods and equipment appropriate to the period.
6. All items must be appropriate for the late eighteenth century (1750-1789).
7. Books regarding your specialty may be sold.
8. The following items may not be displayed or sold:
  - Mass produced items (records, tapes, t-shirts, stickers).
  - Souvenir items (photographs, postcards, stationary).
  - Food.
  - Archaeological artifacts.
9. All Participants must dress in clothing appropriate for the late eighteenth century (1750-1789).
10. Display area(s) (tent, table, etc.) must be provided by the participant and must be appropriate for the period. Nonstandard or non-period tables/cases must be covered with appropriate 18th century material and skirted to the ground (not visible).
11. Modern supplies (boxes, plastic covers, etc.) must be kept from public view.
12. Reenactment "Host Jury" and staff members will inspect participant's set-up and will have authority to request removal of non-period items.
13. First time applicants must supply photo of display with application. Photo will be returned only upon request.
14. Reenactment host reserves the right to reject any application deemed inappropriate for the event. If application is rejected, any fee will be refunded.