Career Highlights

Chris Wilson is often referred to as the cheerleader of the organization because of his passion for the services provided by the City of Greensboro. He joined the organization at age 19, maintaining tennis courts and teaching tennis. Chris came to the City with one goal in mind, helping others.

Chris has served as a consultant for various organizations on capital and operational projects. He has been a speaker for many civic and professional symposiums.

Mr. Wilson has established management and cost share relationships with County, State and Federal Government as well as many other non-profit and commercial organizations. His leadership in the organization has prompted initiatives related to security, community relations, environmental sustainability, education, economic stimulation, and innovative service delivery.
